SOURCE

1. A member of the SED and also of the editorial staff of one of the East Berlin newspapers sent the following directives concerning the "Big Four" conference in Berlin to a West German correspondent.
- A. The attitudes of prominent West Germans regarding the conference are urgently requested.
- B. Further, reports on the general attitude, random samplings of the sentiments of the West German inhabitants. Ask them: "What do you expect from the Big Four conference?"
- C. Especially the reactions to all proposals and speeches of Khrushchev and Dulles.
- D. Especially to be reported are the reactions of leading personalities, simple citizens, and the bourgeois press in case France and England take a different attitude from the American representative, Dulles, on any point or points.
- E. Push to the fore the proposal to send to the conference a "United German Delegation".
- F. Report any feeling against Prof. Wilhelm GREWE, the head of the Bonn delegation. GREWE is regarded as a war criminal and the trusted minion of the American war politicians.
- G. Determine whether the frame of mind of the population is for carrying out a "Big Five" conference with China. If it is possible, ask the members of the French consulate in Hamburg what their reaction is to the proposal for a five-power conference with China.
